The Cedar Park Timberwolves Baseball Clinic is a fundamental skills clinic. The main goal of the clinic is to teach basic hitting, throwing, base running, pitching and catching. The skills are taught in stations and players will be rotated through to each of the stations. Each station will be run by a high school coach or player who plays that particular position. Players will be grouped primarily with players in their same age/skill level. All players will have an opportunity to participate in each of the stations.
